NOTES OF THE TEMPERANCE CRUSADE.—Our Western exchanges continue to teem with reports of the doings of the women engaged in the temperance movement, and there appears to be no abatement either in zeal of the workers or the potent and effectiveness of their labors. At Dayton, O., they have kept at work, in spite of their failure in attempting to make the question a political issue. At Chillicothe the street work is continued and a petition for prohibition has been forwarded to the Constitutional Convention, with 3860 names attached. At Utica, O., all the saloons have been closed. In Indiana the work seems to be spreading. At Laporte, several saloonists have surrendered. At Fort Wayne enthusiastic mass temperance meetings have been held, and the daily prayer meetings are kept up with unabated interest. At Goshen the work has been continued. At Mishawaka all the saloons but two have been closed. At South Bend a number of prosecutions have been instituted by the women, and some of the saloon keepers have been imprisoned. At Richmond, Shelbyville and Columbus no material change is reported, but the work is progressing.

In a number of Illinois towns the movement is at its height. Among other towns mentioned Aurora, Rockford, Dixon, Jacksonville, Kankakee, Bloomington, Quincy, La Salle, Peru and Dwight. At Oshkosh, Wisconsin, anti-license petitions are actively circulated by the ladies. At Beedsburg, in the same State, the utmost enthusiasm prevailed and a large number of signatures to temporal abstinence pledges have been

THE NEW FINANCE BILL

The finance bill which was passed by the Senate on the 7th inst. and by the House of Representatives on Tuesday of this week is now in the hands of the President for his approval or veto, and at the time of this writing nothing definite has been received from Washington to indicate what his final decision will be. The whole country is "waiting for the verdict" with an anxiety which the fragmentary and contradictory despatches only tend to increase. A large and influential delegation from New York yesterday presented to the President a petition for a veto, signed by 2,500 leading men of that city, and supported its request by earnest appeals and arguments, but they elicited no decisive response, as will be seen by the despatch published elsewhere, save the assurance that the interests of the whole country will be considered by the President before he takes action upon the bill. He has freely expressed himself as opposed to inflation and in favor of a specie basis, but is said to be of the opinion that if this bill is not approved its failure will cause a delay in the settlement of the question that will injure the country still more than its approval, and possibly excite the intuitionists to force through some measure calculated to inflict even more serious harm. This last report is mere rumor, however, and the final disposition of the bill is yet a matter of conjecture.

The bill as passed is made up of two parts, one relating to United States notes and one to the notes of national banks. The first fixes the maximum amount of legal tender notes at $4,000,000,000, or, in other words, it legalizes the use of the entire reserve as a part of the circulation, while, practically, the Secretary of the Treasury has all along had it in his discretion to make such use of it. The second authorizes the issue of $46,000,000 of national bank notes, to be distributed among the States which have not their full proportion under the original act, and also requires the national banks to keep in their vaults six per cent. of the gold received for interest on the bonds deposited as security for their notes, and reduces the proportion of their reserves which may be kept in the redemption cities from three-fifths to one-fourth—a reduction of thirty five per cent. of the reserves.

The act is, upon its face, an inflation measure, and it is also a measure for interference with the natural course of the banking business of the country. But competent financiers seem to be puzzled to settle whether in its workings it would really result in inflation or a contraction. According to the calculations of the Comptroller of the Currency in regard to its operations, the bill in requiring one-quarter of the reserve to be kept at home, really becomes one requiring immediate contraction to an amount nearly equal to the increase of bank currency it authorizes, and while the contraction must take place at once the issue of new notes will be very gradual. These calculations have surprised both the friends and opponents of inflation. It is evident that the bill is, after all, not precisely what most of the inflationists in Congress supposed it to be, for there is no doubt it was adopted by them in the belief that it would at once make a considerable and available addition to the currency in circulation and would thus be a precedent for further expansion—an "entering wedge" as Butler has aptly termed it. In setting no such a precedent there is danger, however harmless the immediate effect may be, for if the President permits the principle to be established in this form he will be more difficult for him to resist it in any future risk that may arise, though it might be embodied in a measure much more objectionable than the bill now before him.

Even if the bill does not prove so harmful as was apprehended, on account of the restriction in the second section it does not anything towards removing the real evils from which the finances of the country suffer, and there is no good reason for an experiment on the currency the result of which is so doubtful.

A few days—a few hours, perhaps—will settle the fate of the bill, and we can only hope that the petitions, the protests, the arguments, the appeals of the men who represent the great commercial and business centers of the country may be regarded by the President, whose record on questions of financial finance shows him to be pledged not only against an increase of the currency, but in the support of sound measures looking to resumption.

THE MASSACHUSETTS SENATORSHIP

Yesterday afternoon, on the twenty first ballot since Winter commenced the Massachusetts Legislature on its thirty third ballot voted for Hon. William B. Washburn, now Governor, that State, to the seat in the United States Senate left vacant by the death of Charles Sumner. The election caused considerable surprise, Gov. Washburn's name has had little prominence in the contest, he receiving but few votes until the last of the ballots resulted in his election. The people of Massachusetts were growing impatient at the delay however, and the result, although unexpected, is generally well received throughout the State. The Boston Herald of this morning says:—

It is a happy conclusion to a tedious contest, the prolongation of which threatened to become a scandal to the good name of Massachusetts. The capability of our legislators to discharge an important duty was doubted in some quarters, but through much tribulation and after groping around to find a way out of the difficulties which came upon the Republican when they refused to consult in caucus, they have hit upon the wisest and most fortunate solution of the senatorial problem. It is not a victory for Judge Hoar, it is not a triumph for Mr. Dawes, and most certainly Gen. Butler will not regard the election of a gentleman who has twice driven him out of a State Republican Convention as a result which brings him even a crumb of comfort. There may be a few of the adherents of the two prominent candidates who will perhaps cherish resentments arising from errors for which they are alone responsible, but the Republicans of Massachusetts will accept and indorse the selection as one creditable to the State and every way honorable to the party. If there be any who have been burning, we counsel them to comfort themselves with the reflection that the members of the convention have kept the control of this election within the Republican party, and that the wishes of those who oppose the party of organizations have been frustrated and that the foolish advice of unwise counselors has not prevailed.

The election of Gov Washburn to the U. S. Senate, causes the office to devolve upon Lieut. Gov. Talbot, who is at present on a tour for his health in Texas.

We are gratified to learn that General Harney is recovering from his recent severe illness. In a private letter to a friend in this city he states that he has gained rapidly in strength and health during the past five days, and confidently expects to be out again soon.

THE ARKANSAS IMBROGLIO. In response to the request made by Gov. Baxter of Arkansas, for the President to order U. S. troops to aid him in regaining possession of the State House at Little Rock, from which he was ousted by Gov. Brooks, the President takes the ground that the precedent established in the Louisiana case must be followed, and that the decisions of the Court must be sustained. He therefore declines absolutely to interfere in behalf of Baxter.

During the war-like demonstration "Saturday night, Col. Ross, commandant of the U. S. arsenal, took out a company, and stated that while he had no orders to interfere with either party, he was directed to prevent bloodshed. Gov. Baxter has contracted his lines to the vicinity of the Anthony House and is now proceeding as before to exercise the duties of Governor, making that his, the Capitol for the time being. Friday morning both the private Secretaries of Brooks and Baxter applied at the Post Office for the mail matter addressed to the Governor of Arkansas, but the Postmaster declined to deliver to either party.

The bill authorized by the Committee on the Civil Service Reform for the reorganization of the Treasury Department, reduces the present force over 300, and the annual expenditure of the department over $300,000. It gives higher salaries to the heads of the department, but cuts down the number of clerks and employes. One excellent feature of the bill is that it abolishes all distinction in regard to sex by omitting the word "female," which has hitherto found place in the law.

John B Gough, in an address at Worcester, Mass, said that from the core of his heart to the end of his toes, from the soles of his feet to the roots of his hair, he indorsed the woman's temperance movement in its every action, thought and deed, as by it more had been done for the temperance cause in this country in the last four months than had been done before since the Washingtonian movement thirty years ago.

Advices from Wyoming relative to the Indian situation are not very encouraging. The Peace Commissioners have met with no success in their mission. The Indians say that experience has taught them that these promises ways promise one thing and the military authorities perform another, which is not very far from correct. They are therefore all defiant, and ready for mischief whenever favorable circumstances occur.

A Washington special says that Secretary Fish will take no notice of Mr. Sumner's "suppressed speech," so mutilatedly published. It is within the knowledge of some of the late Senator's warmest friends that during his latter years, Mr. Sumner doubted very materially his previous utterances as affecting both the President and Mr. Fish, and that could he have foreseen that death would have so soon terminated his life, he would have revised his suppressed speech so as to have it conform to his changed views, or else have destroyed the speech itself and recalled all outstanding copies which were sent out when the speech was first prepared.

The announcement is made that the Tehuantepec Railroad Company has completed a contract for the construction and equipment of a railroad from Minatitlan across the Isthmus to Salina Cruz—a distance of 145 miles—to be finished by August 1st, 1876.

A Washington special states that the leading Republican members of the House are talking over the question of adjournment, and there appears to be a steady unanimity of opinion that it will be possible to terminate the session as soon as the first of June, without leaving any very important business undisposed of. Probably a resolution will be introduced in a few days fixing that day as the date of the adjournment. In the Senate the current view appears to be that Congress cannot get away much before the first of July.

Gov. Ames of Mississippi has gained a good deal of popularity by dispensing with wine at his recent reception, thus freeing the State from the disgraceful drunkenness which on many former occasions has stained such gatherings.

It is a curious fact that the two men to whom the Spanish Government has assigned the tasks of suppressing rebellion at home and in Cuba are both Generals Concha, are brothers, and that both received their commands the same day.

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which I enjoy has attained to all parts of the country age.

Great and Good Medicine,

And the large number of testimonials which are constantly being received from persons who have been cured by its use, is conclusive proof of its great value. It is recommended by physicians and apothecaries as a Blood Purifier and Health-Restorer, of no equal.

VEGETINE is not prepared for a fancy drink made from poor liquors, which debilitates the system and tends to destroy health instead of restoring it.

Are not the many testimonials given for the different complaints satisfactory to any reasonable person suffering from disease, that they can be cured? Read the different testimonials given, and no one can doubt. In many of these cases the patients say that their pain and suffering cannot be expressed, as in cases of Scrofula, which, apparently the whole body was one mass of corruption. VEGETINE will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years; is not conclusive proof to you who want for you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can be truly called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate it, can expect to be successful. When the blood becomes fettered and sluggish, either from changes of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the VEGETINE will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body. This conviction is in the public mind as well as in the medical profession, that the remedies supplied by the Vegetable Kingdom are more certain, more successful, in the cure of disease, than mineral medicines. VEGETINE is composed of roots, herbs and barks. It is pleasant to take, and is perfectly safe to give an infant. Do you need it? Do not hesitate to try it. You will never regret it.

CANNOT BE EXCELLED,

CHARLESTOWN, March 19, 1870

H R STEVENS

Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have used the "Blood Vegetable" in my family for several years, and think that, for Scrofula or Cankerous Humors, or Rheumatic Affections, it cannot be excelled, as a blood-purifier and spring medicine, it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost every thing. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine.

Yours respectfully,

MRS A A DINSMORE,

[illegible] Prison street.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

BOSTON, Feb. 13, 1871.

HENRY R. STEVENS, Esq

Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefitted by its use. I procured the article, and after using several bottles, was restored to health and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine equal to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health.

Respectfully yours, O. L. PETTEGILL,

Firm of S. M. Pettengill & Co.,

DR. SCHENCK'S

Standard Remedies!

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea-weed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and it is not those in the lungs treated and a speedy cure is effected.

It is due to no medicine for all diseases of Pulmonic phy. ses but unusually successful in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off in an easy expectoration, and when the slightest or matter is ripe, a perfect cough will throw it off, and the patient has gone into the stage to heal. To assist the Pulmonic Syrup we use Schenck's Sea-weed Tonic and Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea-weed Tonic make a healthy gastric juice, the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall ducts, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, as a gastric stimulant and digestive, its natural effectiveness is so combined relative to the food, and proves to be very. It assists the digestion, by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition so that the food will digest, the Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood, then the lungs heal and the patient will surely get well from a hopeless pulmonary disease.

Dr. Schenck can be consulted at his Principal Office, Boston, on Wednesday, March 25th, April 8th and 22nd, May 13th and 27th.

Advice will be given free, but a thorough examination with the Pulmonic Syrup, the charge is $5.

Schenck's Medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country.

Schenck's Almanac can be had of all Druggists, free.

FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS

First Session.

SENATE

WASHINGTON April 17

Resolutions of the merchants of Cincinnati and the Board of Trade of Detroit, Mich, against inflation of the currency were presented.

Mr Lipton made a long speech on the Louisiana bill, arguing against the adoption of the Kellogg Senate and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE

The House to day was occupied with the appropriation bill, the page of which delay disposed of and adjourned.

THE FINANCE BILL.

A STRONG PETITION FOR A VETO.

NEW YORK, April 16. The petition against inflation, and urging the President to veto the bill just passed, is signed by 2,000 merchants and others, representing $500,000,000.

ITS PRESENTATION TO THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, April 17. The Anti-Inflation Committee from New York, headed by A. A. Low and S. B. Chittenden, called upon the President this morning and presented the petition of the New York bankers, etc., urging him to veto the Senate finance bill.

Cyrus W Field presented the petition, and A A Low, then addressing the President for the committee, said that the petition was signed by 2,500 of their fellow citizens. He continued.—"By memorial and by petitions, by public meetings and by all means in their power they have endeavored to impress upon Senators and Representatives the importance of sedatedly representing the promises and pledges which have been given before the eyes of the whole civilized world, but all their efforts have been in vain, and now as the last act of duty to themselves and to those whom they represent, in the mitigation of the only hope that remains to them, they make their appeal to the President, and we are permitted to say that they make this appeal with the greater confidence because it had been encouraged by your repeated messages to Congress, and because, as they believe, the solemn pledge to which they would more particularly refer was the first act of Congress which received your signature as President of the United States. Your petitioners do not appear before you—as merchants, as financiers, as political economists, but as citizens of the United States, asking only that the honor of the nation, which was so nobly saved by the arrival of the Unknowns, your distinguished lead, may not be lost or impaired by an ill-advised legislation receiving the sanction of your high office."

S B Chittenden then addressed the President. He said; "The truth is becoming plainer and plainer every day that the south-[illegible] is [illegible] at a crisis of fire and storm [illegible] the Executive. We want something to rally the [illegible] of Washington and Lincoln, something to enforce their teachings and warnings. The poor more than the rich, the honest of all parties, but most especially the honest mass of the great Republican party, look to you, their chief and leader."

THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY

The President in reply said that he had watched the progress of the bill through Congress with more interest than he had any other measure before that body since he had been President. He had at all times been entirely free in the expression of his views and was always opposed to expansion without redemption, and in favor of free banking accompanied with such legislation as would carry out the pledges of Congress and the party in the direction of specie payments, but he had to look at this matter a little different from the views of this Committee. They showed very well what they want and may imagine, as he might, were he a citizen of New York, that the whole country was what they do. The chairman of a similar committee from Boston called on him yesterday. If he ever could be in favor of inflation it would be from the effects of such arguments as that gentleman advanced against it, but that position was unlike the case of this committee from New York. The gentleman from Boston, in behalf of those whom he represented, started out with a proclamation of what he (the President) had always believed to be right, speaking as if he were wrong. They opposed the purchase of U S bonds with a surplus from the U. S. Treasury and if he had acted as the Boston Committee wanted him to do, he would have kept such surplus in the Treasury until there was not a greenback in circulation. These bonds were issued at his own direction. Another argument was used in the Boston memorial, that the issue of greenbacks was of doubtful legality and was to be deplored, and had been sustained by a bare majority of one in the Supreme Court as a war measure. In conclusion the President repeated that his views on the question were already known as against inflation and as opposed to breaking away from the redemption of pledges.

The committees of the Committee were then introduced to the President and the interview terminated.

THE CABINET MEETING.

WASHINGTON, April 17. At the Cabinet meeting to day the President related to the Cabinet the particulars of the interview yesterday between himself and the New York Committee. In this connection the Senate bill was discussed, the President explaining his views at length, but what they were cannot be ascertained, as the Cabinet members declined to converse on the subject. It is the belief generally that the President will approve the bill.

DAWES PROPOSES A COMPROMISE

During a recess between 2 30 and 3 00, a communication was received from the Dawes men proposing a union on the name of Dr. Loring, which was rejected by the Hoar men by an almost unanimous vote.

ANOTHER PROPOSITION

was received from the Dawes men that if Hoar men should pass a resolution complimentary to Mr Dawes, and then Dawes would withdraw his name. They also proposed that but one more ballot should be taken to-day, and the convention then adjourn to Saturday. Both these propositions were voted down. Mr Sprague of Framingham moved that

A Long List of Disasters!

Five Steamers Lost!

Disasters to Sailing Vessels!

LOSS OF TWENTY-EIGHT LIVES!

LOSS OF THE FRENCH STEAMER L'AMERIQUE.

NEW YORK, April 16. A despatch from London reports that the French steamship L'Amerique, which sailed from this port April 4th for Havre, with a full cargo of American merchandise and passengers, touched at Brest about the 14th instant, and landed passengers. She then proceeded to Havre, but on her way up the British Channel, went ashore and sunk. All hands were saved.

THE LOCALITY OF THE DISASTER.

The L'Amerique sunk near the island of Ushant, off the coast of Brittany, 25 miles to the northwest of Brest. If she had foundered at sea, it is doubtful whether the passengers could have been saved; for in that event, the boats would probably have been rendered useless. Her loss, however, is certain.

THE PASSENGERS RESCUED.

The passengers and crew were rescued by English, Norwegian and Italian vessels in the vicinity. An Italian vessel arrived at Brest this afternoon with the crew. The information of this disaster was not received at Lloyds, in London, until 2 30 this afternoon was that of the second officer, who is named Gaillard and was one of the survivors of the Ville du Havre.

EASTERN PASSENGERS.

NEW YORK, April 16. L'Amerique has about 75 cabin passengers on board, but few of whom were landed at Brest. More than two-thirds remained on board, and by a telegraph despatch received here, lost everything.

Among the cabin passengers were the following Boston parties:—Dr J B S Jackson, Henry Jackson, Mr. F Selim, Mrs John Reed, Mr. J F Reed, Billings B Reed, J W Reed Mrs. Wm. J Clarke, child and nurse, and Mrs Catharine K Chapman.

THE STEAMER

was an iron propeller of 3020 tons, ship rigged, and this was her third or fourth voyage. She had lengthened at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England. She was somewhat smaller than the Ville du Havre, but similarly built.

THE INSURANCE.

NEW YORK, April 17. L'Amerique was insured in France for $800,000, the same rate having been taken on the Ville du Havre.—These vessels were called sister ships, their capacity being nearly the same, the Amerique taking not a few hundred tons below the 3000, at which the Ville du Havre was rated. The Amerique was lengthened at Newcastle-on-Tyne last December, and reached New York January 23. She was making her second outward trip when the disaster overtook her.

THE CARGO.

Her manifest shows the cargo to have consisted of 1,243 bales of hides, 2,205 boxes skins, 2,141 packages lard, 746 boxes bacon, 281 barrels ashes, 204 bales cotton, 44,000 bushels of wheat, 200 bags, 113 barrels tallow, 1,040 packages machinery, etc.

THE RESCUED PASSENGERS.

The Italian ship, which saved the largest number of those on board, arrived at Brest yesterday bringing forty passengers and 145 of the crew. The Norwegian vessel, which saved thirty more of the passengers, had also arrived there. The English vessel, with the remainder of the passengers and crew, is expected at the same port, although it was reported she might have gone to some port on the English coast.

PROBABLE CAUSE OF THE DISASTER.

A gentleman familiar with the vessels of the French line attributes the loss of the Europe and L'Amerique wholly to the unskilful work in the process of lengthening, which was done at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England.—They were originally strong and seaworthy but were weakened by lengthening. During the last voyage of the Europe her officers freely expressed fears that L'Amerique would never reach Havre, so confident were they that she had been cripples by the bungling manner in which she had been lengthened. The officers of the Greece also commented upon the same defect in the Europe.

STATEMENT OF AN EXPERT.

Mr. Leverett, Superintendent of the Morgan Iron Works, which repaired L'Amerique's boilers on her arrival here from her first voyage, says the iron of the hull was inferior and the workmanship decidedly bad. A captain of one of the vessels of the same line had said to him, L'Amerique caked after leaving Newcastle and all the way from Havre to this port." Mr Leverett added "You can fancy the when I tell you, for a fact, that of a large consignment of silk forming part of her cargo nearly 500 boxes were destroyed or damaged, and when she got back to Havre on the return voyage she had six feet of water in her hold, and the leaking was not confined to any particular part of the vessel. It is the same way with all the vessels lengthened at New Castle."

PRO CONTRA.

Mr McKenzie, the New York agent of the line, says that L'Amerique was not loaded more heavily than usual and had been by reason of consumption of coal 400 tons lighter than on the day of her departure. He had never heard either the captain or officers complain of the ship making any water during her three trips across the ocean. But on the contrary they had spoken of her as being particularly dry.

ANOTHER STEAMER WRECKED

PHILADELPHIA, April 16. A despatch from Atlantic City says that the steamer Nederland, from Antwerp via Liverpool, is ashore on Brigantine shoals, where she put in for repairs to her steering gear. She has a large and valuable cargo, shipped to Antwerp for Philadelphia, for which port she is bound. She has no passengers. Her rudder and wheel are gone, but she is otherwise in good condition.

DESCRIPTION OF THE VESSEL.

The steamship Nederland was built at Newcastle-on-the-Tyne in 1872, iron screw, propeller, 330 feet in length, 39 feet breadth of beam, and draws 21 feet when loaded. She is divided into water-tight compartments, and has double sides, being thus unusually strong and safe.

LIKELY TO BE A TOTAL LOSS.

NEW YORK, April 17. A Philadelphia despatch says the latest advices from the steamship Nederlands say she is in a bad condition and it is doubtful whether she can be saved. Just when the temporary lighters were ready to be used, yesterday, the wind changed and carried her still further upon the Brigantine Shoals. The greater part of her cargo has been cast overboard.

STILL ANOTHER STEAMER SUNK.

NEW ORLEANS, April 16. The steamer Amite, bound for Pensacola, with a cargo of grain and flour, came in collision last night in the Bigotts with the steamer Reliance. The Amite sunk. No lives were lost. The cargo was valued at $10,000. The steamer will probably be raised.

DISASTER TO A GERMAN STEAMER.

LONDON, April 17. The steamship Goethe, which left Hamburg yesterday for New York, is aground in the Elbe, and her cylinder is broken.

THE ABANDONED STEAMER MCGREGOR

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17. Private letters from a passenger on the steamer McGregor states that when the Tartar left her she had seventeen feet of water in the hold. There was a large hole forward, and much of the cargo was thrown overboard.

LOSS OF A SCHOONER AND SIX MEN.

HALIFAX, N. S., April 16. All the missing fishing schooners which were out in the gale on Friday last have turned up, with the exception the Minnie, about 30 tons burden, and it is feared that she has been lost, with six men on board.

CANAL BOATS PUNK—TWO LIVES LOST.

PHILADELPHIA, April 16. A steamship Lucile, which left for Liverpool to-day, before the ship, ran into a tow of canal boats and took four of them. Crew saved, but it is said a woman and child were drowned. The steamer was not damaged and went on her way.

A SCHOONER GOES DOWN.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 16. The schooner Wing, Wagner, master, of and for the Tran-[illegible] this morning of Beaver Tail, by steamer A. C. Stanton, hence for New York, and sunk in ten minutes. The crew were saved.

STEAMER FOUNDERED AND NINETEEN LIVES LOST.

NEW YORK, April 17. Panama advices state that the consting steamer Tacus, belonging to the Pacific Steam Navigation Co, which left Valparaiso on the 13th ult, foundered at sea owing to a reported panic on board, and two men running away with the small boat. Nineteen persons lost their lives. A court of investigation is now being held.

A SCANDAL SPOILED. My Editor—Report lies. I saw a report in your last issue that there was a new-born babe found in the privy in the South Lagrange school house. I wish to state the fact that repoit is not correct. I was teaching school there at the time, and built the fire myself, and there was no child, nor any part of a child, in said house. I thought it in just as to the citizens of South Lagrange that the report should be corrected.

Alton, April 16th. AMASA HATCH, Jr.

FAST DAY SERVICES. Union services were held as follows in this city Thursday:—At the Hammond street church, where Rev. S. P. Fay delivered a sermon on Temperance; at the Union street Methodist church, discourse by Rev. A. and Prince; at the Columbia street church discourse by Rev. A TRAVELING BALANCE WHEEL. A two hundred and fifty pound balance-wheel attached to the shaft which runs a circular saw in D. M. Dunham's manufacturing establishment, on Pickering square, flew off yesterday forenoon, the machinery being in rapid motion, went through the door, and across the square. Mr. Dunham had a narrow escape from being severely injured and a team standing in the street was grazed by the flying wheel. In a little less than no time the wheel struck against a rock and was completely demolished.

AN ITEM OF INTEREST TO LIQUOR AND TOBACCO DEALERS. J. W. Douglass, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has notified collectors of the revenue to inform every person engaged in any business which requires a special tax, to procure and place conspicuously in his place of business a stamp denoting the payment of said special tax for the year beginning May 1st, 1874, before commencing or continuing business after April 30. These taxes have hitherto been payable after May 1st, but by the law of Dec. 24, 1873, the tax must be paid before that date. A failure to comply with this requirement will subject the offender to a penalty of fifty per cent. in addition to the regular tax, and the collector has no discretion in the matter of its assessment.

AN ELEGANT CONTEST. At the recent annual March meeting in Parkman, Mrs. Marietta Rollins was elected a member of the Superintending School Committee, to consist of Rev. H. A. Libby, C. N. Bagley, and Mrs. Rollins, whereupon Mr. Bagley tendered his resignation, which was accepted. Subsequently the town voted to elect a Supervisor, and did elect Mr. Bagley. Mrs. Rollins, by advice, now claims to be legally in office, and has filled up the vacancies in the Board (Mr. Libby having resigned), while Mr Bagley and his friends claim she is legally Supervisor. Mrs. Rollins' friends insist that no Supervisor could be legally elected without an article in the warrant, to see if the town would vote to choose a Supervisor. One of Mrs. Rollins' appointees is a legal gentleman, and thus the battle waxes.

FOREIGN ARRESTED. Officer John Pratt arrested Augustus E. Voter, yesterday forenoon, for forgery, the circumstances being as follows: Thursday officer Pratt met at the E & N. A. depot Sheriff Mitchell, of Strong, who made some enquiries concerning a man named Voter, for whom he had a warrant and who was wanted on the charge of forging the name of one Lambert on a note which he sold to Zebedah Sweet and Geo Mitchell, the value being between three and four hundred dollars. The forgery was committed in 1872 since which time Voter has not been seen by the interested parties who have been given to understand that he was somewhere at work on the Union Pac ific Railroad. Mr. Mitchell was on his way to Houlton and put the warrant in Mr Pratt's hands, and the latter found the man at work on the Maryland House stables and arrested him. Yesterday the Sheriff returned to Strong to see what disposition will be made of the case, meanwhile Voter was lodged in jail. It is said that Voter is guilty of forging his father's name for a larger amount and if the case is brought to trial he will probably be dealt with severely.

HOW THE BULLFINCH IS TAUGHT TO SING.—Boys and girls are the only little folk who attend singing classes, as you shall know when you read about the piping bull finch.

In Germany and in some of our city parks, but the bird is very different from the sparrow. The sparrow is a little brown, noisy little piece of fun and mischief, but the bullfinch, He is a quiet bird—little, too, has a soft red head and black wings, see how he will nibble the seed, and how quietly he hops around his cage. Yes, he looks very stupid, but he is wrong to think so, for it happens that he is the greatest musician of all the feathered tribe.
